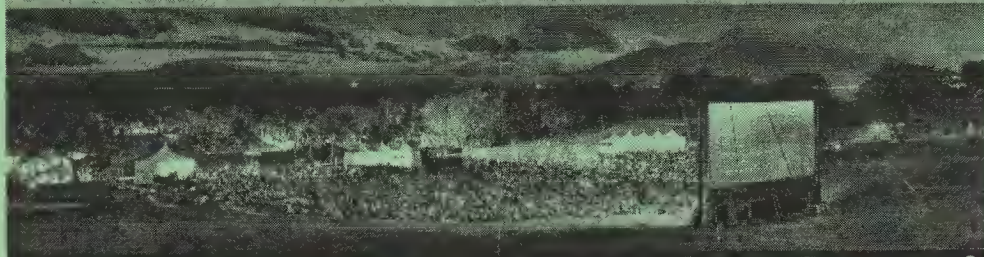
Maui Film Festival June 17-21, 2009



SHERMAN'S WAY

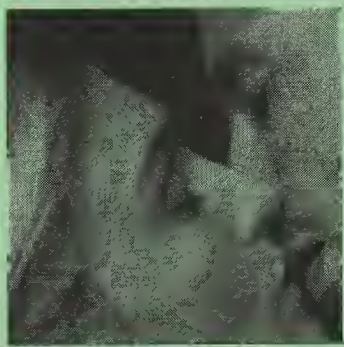
HAWAII PREMIERE! On a journey to a career-making internship at a prestigious Beverly Hills law firm, a young, uptight Ivy-Leaguer finds himself stranded on the West Coast having to take a road trip through rural California with an eccentric, washed-up, middle-aged former athlete which turns into an exploration of friendship, fatherhood, the challenge of finding one's way in the world and new love, as embodied by stunning newcomer Broke Nevin, in this "surprising little low-budget comedy that has heart, smarts and charm enough for you to fall in love with it!" raved the NY Times. Not Rated. 97 min.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6

CHE: GUERILLA - PART TWO!

(Not the Same Film Shown in May!) Benicio del Toro, who won the Cannes Film Festival Best Actor Award for his portrayal of "Che" Guevara, reprises his role as "Che" leaves Cuba, both in disguise and as the "Most Wanted Fugitive in the World", and travels to Bolivia in an attempt to foment revolution throughout South America and beyond in this "brilliant looking glass into the history of Western Hemisphere political intrigue" raved Variety from Academy Award-winning director Steven Soderbergh's Rated R. 121 min. In Spanish w/English subtitles.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 13



SHALL WE KISS

Hawaii Premiere! The Eternal Question "When is a Kiss just a Kiss, and When is a Kiss Much, Much More?" is answered in this well acted, filled with beautiful people, quintessential French comedy is a cinematic delicay, about true love and the always waiting-in-the-wings opportunity for a secret affair. "Expert, intricate, ultimately provocative and entirely enchanting" raved the normally staid, highly regarded Wall Street Journal film critic. Variety added "This is upscale French entertainment at its best." In French with English subtitles. Unrated. 96 min.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 20

All Wednesday Films at 5pm & 7:30pm ★ Castle Theater at the MACC in Kahului
$8/Film with 45-Day Pass ★ $10/Film with 90-Day Pass ★ Single Tix: $12.50

www.MauiFilmFestival.com